

200 ERIE CANAL

Greater Brockport Celebrates the 200th ANNIVERSARY

of the Erie Canal Groundbreaking

July 2-7, 2017

ALL EVENTS ARE FAMILY FRIENDLY & FREE OF CHARGE

SUNDAY, JULY 2 • Village of Brockport Farmers Market 8am-1pm every Sunday, Market Street at Main

MONDAY, JULY 3 • Sweden Clarkson Recreation's Annual Independence Celebration; many family activities 7-9pm and fireworks at dusk
Sweden Community Center, on the hill at 4927 Lake Road

**Rain date July 5.*

TUESDAY, JULY 4 • Western Monroe Historical Society's Annual
Old Fashioned 4th of July

Children's parade, family activities, food and lots of music
10am-3pm at the Morgan Manning House, 151 Main Street

THURSDAY, JULY 6 • Greater Brockport Development Corporation's Summer Serenades with Julie Dunlap & Jimmy Whitaker
a little bit of country, a little bit of rock 'n roll 7pm at the Welcome Center, 11 Water Street

**Rain location for all Summer Serenades Concerts is*

The Lodge on the Canal (former Senior Center), 133 State Street

FRIDAY, JULY 7 • Water Music NY with the Albany Symphony
8pm on a barge docked at the Brockport Welcome Center, 11 Water Street
Hear Handel's Water Music and composer Loren Loiacono's collaboration with the Golden Eagle String Band and Mariah Maloney Dance, inspired by local history. Additional events scheduled throughout the day. The Symphony's canal bicentennial tour is hosted locally by the Village of Brockport and the Greater Brockport Development Corporation.

**Rain location St. Luke's Episcopal Church, State and Main Streets*

Brockport Community Museum's Canal History exhibit runs through July 15 at the Seymour Library, 161 East Avenue.

