

Village of Brockport
Historic Preservation Board
Meeting of May 17,2012 Minutes

Public hearing . The nomination of 296 Main St. was proposed . Carol Hannon was present for the hearing. Linda VanDenberg and Bill Andrews both gave an affirmative votes as did the committee members present.

The meeting was called to order at 7:16, Kathy Goetz sat in for Bill Andrews.

Present were Pam Ketchum, Caitlin Moore, Kevin Rademacher, Carol Hannan and SriRam Bakshi. Bill Andrews was out of the country, Kevin McCarthy and Lynda Vandenberg were unable to attend.

Approval of the minutes of the April 15 meeting. Minutes were approved but because we are inquorate,will have to be confirmed at the next meeting.

Ratification will be deferred to our June meeting.

Kevin Rademacher presented their renderings for the Riley, Halley, Short and Kehoe properties. Zach Delaney is still not done. They have only gotten into the tattoo artist's appt. to date. They hope to have the Mendez and the Clinton St. project ready by June 21.

Progress report on the CLG grant . We have not heard from Lorraine Weise .

Discussed the web site and decided that each of us will check out sites and compare them at our June meeting so that we have some idea of user friendly , informative sites.

Proposed designations of Historic Landmarks:

Bucholz - no report

Panning-Rice- Goetz - in progress

Hawken - Ketchum - not in progress

Status of Nominations to S/N Registers - Ketchum and Goetz met to prepare for the meeting with V. Bartos on May 21.

Report on Erie Canal workshop. The first Erie Canal Heritage Showcase workshop took place in Brockport on May 2nd. Participant's from other canal communities met with 8 community leaders from the village to learn from Brkpt's experience in developing a plan to make it attractive to residents and visitors. Bill organized the workshop which took place after the group was given a tour of the business district and the Visitors Center.

New HPB members - SriRam Baksh has submitted his application for a seat on this board.

Meeting adjourned : 8:20 pm moved by Ketchum and 2nd by Moore

Next meeting : June 21 7:15 p.m.